

The winner of the 2016 Outstanding Corporate Philanthropist Award is a Florida based company founded in 1930. It is the largest employee-owned organization in its industry in the United States. The company and associates excel in community involvement, volunteerism and a commitment to market areas and beyond. In its corporate mission, the organization commits to be passionately focused on customer value, intolerant of waste, dedicated to the dignity, value and employment security of its associates, devoted to the highest standards of stewardship for its stockholders and involved as responsible citizens in its communities. Corporate Philanthropy and giving back is an inherent core value.

This generous company gives back to its customers through significant investments in the communities it serves. Dedicated commitments to hunger initiatives throughout the Treasure Coast; direct support to countless non-profit agencies; strong and successful workplace giving campaigns through the United Way, with matching gifts from its corporate foundation are part of the unparalleled philanthropic culture of this major corporation; delivered with a hometown community focus and feeling.

Please join me in congratulating the winner of the 2016 Outstanding Corporate Philanthropist Award:

PUBLIX SUPERMARKETS