Join us at the Refuge for our annual Trail Spruce-Up!

Meet us out at the Arthur R. Marshall Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge in Boynton Beach on Saturday, February 4 (9 am-12 noon) for a fun, family-friendly event! Our volunteers will pick up trash, remove non-native plants, and generally "spruce up" public trails and other areas in preparation for Everglades Day at the Refuge all day on Saturday, February 11. (Mark your calendar to visit the Marshall Foundation's booth at Everglades Day for educational activities and information.)

RSVP by Wednesday, February 1 for the Trail Spruce-Up via e-mail: PlantCypress@aol.com. Learn more at www.artmarshall.org.

New Headwaters Refuge Announced by Ken Salazar

Several state and national officials, including U.S. Senator Bill Nelson and Director of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Dan Ashe, gathered at the site of the new Everglades Headwaters National Wildlife Refuge and Conservation Area in central Florida on January 18 for the official announcement by Ken Salazar, U.S. Secretary of the Interior. Arthur R. Marshall Foundation President Nancy Marshall also attended and was given the opportunity to thank the officials on behalf of the Foundation.
