

Marshall Matters

October 9, 2011

RSVP Today for the Cypress Harvest on October 29

Join us for a fun, FREE, family event at the Arthur R. Marshall Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge as we gather cypress seeds for germination and replanting in Florida wetlands.

Reservations are required. Call (561) 233-9004 or e-mail education@artmarshall.com by Oct. 27 to receive a release form and additional information about what to wear and bring.

The Cypress Harvest starts at 9:00 am and will run until approximately 12:00 noon.

As a special added attraction, Busch Wildlife Sanctuary will release an injured wild bird of prey that was rehabilitated.

Photography Mentors Wanted!

If you are an experienced photographer and enjoy helping young people, we need you! Please call Josette Kaufman today at (561) 233-9004 or contact her via e-mail: Josette@artmarshall.com.

The Photography Project will start at 9:00 am at the Arthur R. Marshall Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge on October 29 (runs concurrently with the Cypress Harvest).

The goal of the project is to help young people learn to look more carefully at the world around them through the lens of a camera, while enjoying nature and the outdoors and improving their photography skills. This project is made possible by the Palm Beach County Cultural Council.
