

PRIVACY STATEMENT

The Nat Moore Foundation, Inc. is committed to respecting the privacy of on-line visitors. The Foundation's website does not track, collect or distribute personal information that is not provided directly by visitors. Our site logs do generate certain kinds of non-identifying site usage data, such as the number of hits and visits to our sites. This information is used for internal purposes only.

What information do we collect? How do we use it?

When you request information about the Nat Moore Foundation, Inc. or give a donation, your contact information (name, e-mail, phone and address) is required. We may use your contact information to send you information about the Nat Moore Foundation, Inc.'s programs, events or fund raising. We do not sell, trade or rent your personal information to other organizations. We do not participate in telemarketing.

The Nat Moore Foundation, Inc. may release personal information under the following circumstances:

1. Where release is required by law or regulation or is requested by a government agency;
2. Where our records indicate that a person may be engaged in fraudulent activity or other deceptive practices that a government agency should be made aware of; or
3. To appropriate persons, if a person's communication suggests possible harm to others.
